CONNAUGHT GOLF CLUB

Nestled in a suburban area, with a surprising ecological twist on the fourth hole, Connaught Golf Club in Medicine Hat is a great fit for any player no matter what your handicap index may be.

With its wide, inviting fairways bordered by majestic trees that offer protection from the Southern Alberta winds, rough that isn't too penal and smaller greens, this is a test of staying within your abilities to score well over its 18 holes.

First opened in 1922, Connaught GC offers five different teeing areas, ranging in distances from 5,400 yards up to 6,600 yards, making the game that much more playable for all, from the beginner to the experienced low handicapper.

COTTONWOOD COULEE GOLF COURSE

The distances at Cottonwood Coulee Golf Course may not be grand but the visuals presented when you make the final turn at the top of the hill running down to this 18-hole executive length layout certainly are.

Set at the bottom of the coulees that run through Medicine Hat, Cottonwood Coulee is an eye-candy golf experience. From the beautifully laid out holes, to the waterfowl that inhabit the area, to the surrounding bluffs, you'll want to take as many shots with your camera as with your sticks.

At its longest, Cottonwood Coulee plays to just over 4,500 yards and features some breath-taking elevation changes from the deepest teeing areas, many from elevated tees high above the fairways.

From its shortest distance of 3,400 yards, Cottonwood still presents players lots of challenges with dramatic uphill approach shots and smooth, undulating greens. With one par-5 and seven par-3 tests, this little gem is a delight to play...and photograph.

DESERT BLUME GOLF CLUB

Golf in southern Alberta, and Medicine Hat in particular, doesn't get more exhilarating than what you find at the Desert Blume Golf Club. Located just outside the city limits, this 18-hole beauty makes you think before you drive, and look twice before you putt.

Nestled amongst the coulees in this part of the province, you won't find trees getting in your way. Rather, the course and its 6,800 yards of challenge are guarded by fescue grasses, massive bunkers and quick-rolling, undulating greens.

Each hole here is a unique experience, not only on the course but to the entire area's golf community, making Desert Blume a must-play on anyone's list.

This is a truly spectacular test of your game and will leave you talking about your game here on the area's premier golf course, no matter what your final result may be.

MEDICINE HAT GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

As the granddaddy of all the golf courses in “The Hat”, the Medicine Hat Golf & Country Club has definitely kept itself up to date. Originally founded in 1913 just outside the city, this course is now located in the heart of the city in its second home, founded in 1934. It perches high above the South Saskatchewan River affording players great views of the waterway plus the city skyline.

Playing to a top distance of 6,700 yards, this old gentleman offers players wide, majestic tree-lined fairways and large greens. The course’s park-like setting and relatively flat landscape makes it walker-friendly.

While the term “Country Club” often brings to mind a private and exclusive facility, the Medicine Hat G&CC welcomes everyone, of all golfing abilities, to come and partake in their rich golfing history as well as their relaxed and welcoming atmosphere.

PARADISE VALLEY GOLF COURSE

When you consider that up to 60 per cent of golf is played from 100 yards out from the green, practicing your short game is imperative. But, many of us don't like spending time on the range, hitting ball after ball at sticks in the ground.

The answer to that dilemma: Paradise Valley Golf Course in Medicine Hat. This 18-hole par 3 track is perfect for working on those tricky wedge and middle iron shots that help improve your score on larger courses. Located in the coulees of this Southern Alberta community, Paradise Valley has tests ranging from 87 yards up to 177 yards. There are plenty of shots to challenge your short game skill.

And afterwards, the Clubhouse Restaurant is a favourite for locals, with great food and a spectacular creekside deck and garden patio.

RIVERVIEW GOLF CLUB

With magnificent views from high above the South Saskatchewan River the Riverview Golf Course, in Redcliff is an ideal way to spend the day. This par-72, 18-hole track offers players of all abilities wide fairways and large, smooth-rolling greens to help them perhaps card the best round ever. This is a course that can stand up to the best of players yet at the same time is a family-friendly playground, where one and all are welcome to experience the hospitality, both on-course and in the clubhouse.

While it's not in Medicine Hat-proper, Redcliff GC is a quick, simple drive away from the metropolitan area and offers a scenic, quiet place to swing away to your heart's content on this par-71 course that offers four sets of tees and distances from 5,100 yards up to 6,600.
